March 3 - New Year, New Changes to ADA

Don't be “disabled” by the amended Americans with Disabilities Act. Learn how the new Act, which took effect January 1, 2009, will affect the workplace and review employer obligations under the ADA that did not change. Find out more about the expanded definition of who is disabled, why more employees may be entitled to accommodations, and how the new changes will place additional burdens and pressures on employers and managers to comply with the law.

Please join the attorneys of Fisher & Phillips LLC to learn about recent developments and get answers to these pressing issues.

This series is brought to you by your Member Firm of United Benefit Advisors – an association of nearly 140 premier independent benefit advisory firms and one of the nation's five largest employee benefits advisory organizations – and Fisher & Phillips LLP, attorneys at law, with nearly a half-century of practice in employment law and offices in 19 major cities in the U.S.

Shared Wisdom. Powerful Results.
