Employer Webinar Series

Compliance 201 for Plan Administrators

Tuesday, June 15, 2010 - 2 p.m. ET / 11 a.m. PT

Taking up where we left off in our "Compliance 101" webinar, "Compliance 201 for Plan Administrators" will take a deeper dive into some of the issues facing HR professionals and welfare plan sponsors. Topics will include:

- Understanding When Welfare "Plan Assets" Must be Held in Trust
- ERISA Preemption
- Claims and Appeal Procedures and Judicial Review of Denied Claims
- Cafeteria Plan Compliance Issues
- Fiduciary Duties
- Plan Discrimination Issues After Health Care Reform

PRESENTERS:

Greg Ash, Partner - Spencer Fane Britt & Browne LLP

Greg is a partner in Spencer Fane's Overland Park office, where he is a member of the firm's Employee Benefits Group and Chair of its ERISA Litigation Group. For more than 15 years Greg's practice has focused exclusively on ERISA and other laws governing employee benefits, including matters affecting pension, profit sharing, ESOP, 401(k), executive compensation and welfare plans.

Julia Vander Weele, Partner - Spencer Fane Britt & Browne LLP

Julia practices in the firm's Employee Benefits Group and is also a member of the ERISA Litigation Group. Prior to joining Spencer Fane, Julia worked as in-house counsel for Fortis Benefits Insurance Company, where she managed ERISA litigation and advised senior management on other ERISA issues related to group disability, life and dental products.

This series is brought to you by your Member Firm of United Benefit Advisors - an alliance of more than 140 premier independent benefit advisory firms and one of the nation's five largest employee benefits advisory organizations - and Spencer Fane Britt & Browne LLP, with offices throughout the Midwest and more than a century of experience providing legal counsel.
